THE GROWTH OF OUR CHURCH IN EUROPE

By JOHN A. WIDSTOE

More than two hundred thousand men and women of European birth have accepted the restored Gospel of Jesus Christ. They and their descendants are as bone and sinew in the body of the Church. Most of these European converts have gathered with the Saints in the West; but many have remained in their native lands to maintain outposts of Zion, for the better progress of the work of the Lord.

There are in the European lands faithful members who are the fourth and fifth generation of Latter-day Saints. Today, there is an active, eager, intelligent, permanent European membership of thirty thousand.

The faith and devotion of this membership are of surpassing power and beauty. Many of them lead such lives of sacred aspiration that they seem beyond imitation by those who are caught in the modern swirl of earthly desires.

This multitude of European converts, past and present, is the fruit of the labors of faithful, energetic missionaries, who have labored in Europe during the 93 years since Heber C. Kimball and the pioneer missionary group landed in Liverpool.

Opposition to the Latter-day Saints was fostered in Europe from the first by ministers, slanderers and cheap novelists who laid their turpid plots among the Mormons. The press, constitutionally fair, was often misled into joining the senseless shouting. Persecution was the natural effect. Physical violence was a frequent result. Imprisonment of the elders was the regular order in some of the countries. But the work went on.

Anti-Mormon agitation in Europe is now largely a thing of the past. The Latter-day Saints have not been found wanting in the high qualities of good citizenship. Travelers have returned from Utah and other Mormon centers with such uniformly fine reports of the Latter-day Saints that the most misguided, fire spitting Mormon hater, has been forced to cool his hot breath and hide his zealous ardor. Truth always prevails.

More than 700 missionaries are laboring at present, in the eleven European missions. In the countries included in these missions, there are 273,000 persons per missionary. A tidy number for one man to meet and supply with truth! The modern difficulties in the way of proselyting for the restored Gospel are greater than the old ones. A generation or more ago, there was much simple, soul-saving faith in God. Today, there is a thick surface of indifference to religion.

The destiny of the Church is to cover the earth. Those who live here, in obedient adherence to Gospel law, no doubt play their important part in the unfolding of the purposes of the Almighty.

TRANSFERRED TO OGDEN

Rodino L. Hickman and family will leave June 28 for Ogden where they will make their future home. Hickman, connected with the Sperry Flour Co., has been transferred to the Utah office. For the past two years he has been Stake Superintendent of Y. M. M. I. A. and has carried the activities to new high levels. Mrs. Hickman has also been an ardent Mutual worker, having served in the ward presidencies of both Berkeley and Diamond. A host of friends regret the departure of this popular young couple, and will long remember the fine service rendered by them.

PRICE BALL ILL

Price Ball, 21, M Men President of the Stake, was taken to Highland Hospital June 23, suffering from severe complications. He has been ill for the past month, and when his condition puzzled attending physicians, he was removed to the county hospital for observation. Price is the son of I. B. Ball of Berkeley, our stake radio broadcaster. A host of friends are praying for the recovery of the young man.

ENTERTAINS PRINCE

Prince Charles, second son of the King of Belgium, has been guest of Capt. and Mrs. Raymond C. Naylor of Oakland ward for the past week. Part of the time was spent at the Naylor ranch near Calistoga. It was Miss Betty Naylor who met and danced with the "delightful young man" on the boat returning from Europe last Spring. Upon arrival at New York he announced his identity. "I'm sorry," said Miss Naylor as they parted. The arrival of the Prince in San Francisco came as a surprise. "But no love affair," Mrs. Naylor told reporters. Miss Naylor was silent.

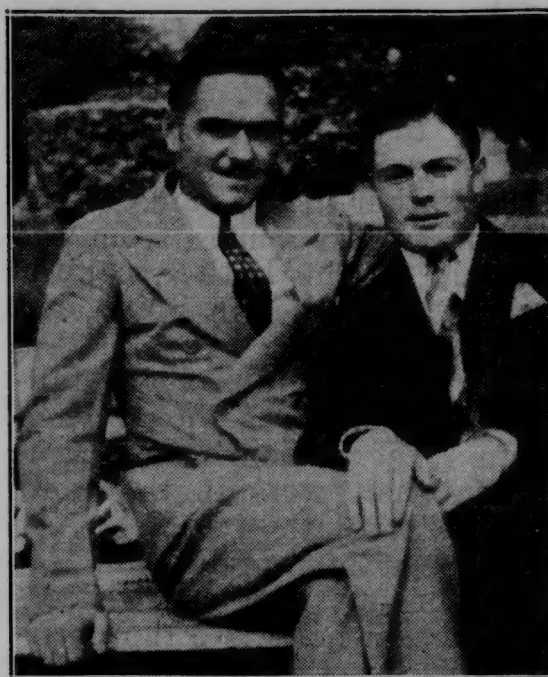

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

The semi-annual Missionary Conference of the San Francisco District was held Saturday and Sunday June 20-21. Pres. Jos. W. McMurrin was unable to be present. Stake authorities were in attendance, Pres. MacDonald representing President McMurrin. Pres. J. S. Cannon of the Long Beach district and three lady missionaries, released, were present, Mabel Larsen, Mae Erickson, Gladys Sorenson. Agnes E. Smith and Arvilla E. Wootton of the Sacramento-Gridley district and Edna Cook and Edith Lind of San Jose district, were also present and attended all sessions.

The gospel was preached effectively and earnestly by the conference speakers, which included, beside the missionaries, Stake President MacDonald, I. B. Ball, Bishop Nalder and Branch Presidents Maughan of Pittsburg, Carr of Vallejo, Perry of Haywards and White of Mill Valley.

The missionaries of the district include Pres. Thos. Birch, O. Marion Roper, clerk; Geo. W. Mendenhall, Newel F. Wasden, W. DeVerl Turner, Myron B. Walker, Robt. B. McMillan, Clara Fotland and Lois Linford.

FROM FAR BUENOS AIRES

Elder Elwin Bagley of Oakland, left, and his missionary companion, Elder Wheeler, in a restful pose, in Buenos Aires, Argentina, South America. Elder Bagley, son of George W. Bagley of the Stake High Council edits a small monthly mission paper in Spanish, "La Estrella del Sur", in connection with his other missionary labors. He is now realizing his boyhood hopes, for all through school he studied Spanish to prepare himself for his mission. He is doing a fine labor, and his letters breathe the spirit of the Gospel messenger.

HONOR TO STUDENT

Signal honor was given recently to another Mormon boy, a student at Stanford University. Benjamin Marden Black, of Oakland, was invited to read a paper before the American Association for the Advancement of Science at Pasadena, June 15, giving the results of his research in blood chemistry of dogs. He was awarded a degree of bachelor of science by Stanford this year. Black will continue his work for a master's degree, and will be an associate instructor in anatomy. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Benj. W. Black of Oakland. Dr. Black is Medical Director of Alameda County, and popular civic leader, formerly of Fillmore, Utah.

KIND WORDS FROM ENGLAND

Dear President MacDonald:

Upon my return to England yesterday I found on file the copies of your Stake Messenger. It is very interesting and it seems to me a good thing for the people of the Stake. Permit me to congratulate you heartily upon undertaking this venture and making this little paper so interesting.

It pleases me greatly to hear of the splendid work done under your supervision in the San Francisco Stake of Zion.

May the Lord bless you and yours and your associates in the ministry, and the people of the Stake.

Cordially your friend and brother,
JOHN A. WIDSTOE,
Mission President,
Liverpool, June 6, 1931

STAKE BAY CRUISE JULY FOURTH

All indications point that the grand Boat Tour and Stake Reunion, Saturday, July 4th, will climax all gatherings of Saints in California. Reports from several wards show that tickets will soon be at a premium. Two wards have sold all their tickets and have asked for more. Substantial blocks have been requested by Sacramento, Palo Alto and San Jose, who have asked that they be permitted to join the Stake in the marvelous outing on the 4th. The committee sounds warning that delay in securing your tickets is liable to bring regrets. Make your reservations at once with your ward agent.

The S. S. City of Sacramento, largest and finest steamer on the bay, will carry the Saints and their friends on this first annual tour of San Francisco's marvelous bay. The boat will leave San Francisco at 9 a.m. and from Oakland, foot of Broadway, at 9:45 a.m. Returning to Oakland at 4:15 p.m., and ending the cruise at the Ferry building at 5 p.m.

Plans and arrangements have been made to provide every comfort and entertainment for every minute of the trip. Dancing, sports, games and feasting. A patriotic program, and thrilling and romantic history will be broadcast as each point of interest is passed. It will be a day never to be forgotten. Make it a family reunion as well as a great Stake-wide outing.

STAKE CONFERENCE NEXT SUNDAY

Stake quarterly Conference is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, July 11-12. The regular Priesthood session will be held Saturday evening at the Oakland chapel, and two sessions on Sunday, 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. The evening session will be held in the San Francisco ward chapel.

Visitors from Salt Lake City, representing the General Authorities are expected to be present.

About People

Lillian Russell and Melba Sumpson of Springville are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Russell of Berkeley.

Mrs. E. G. Ogden of Salt Lake is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Ray L. Knight of Berkeley.

Glenn Allen of Oakland is visiting friends in Utah. He will return with a bride.

Mrs. Arthur Ricketts and daughter, Virginia, of Ogden are guests of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Perkins of Elmhurst.

Mrs. Dr. B. W. Black, her son, Marden, and daughter, Margaret, have taken a cottage at Carmel for the summer.

TRUE WORSHIP

All Church activities are calculated to bring growth to the Saints.

We are commanded to worship the Father in the name of the Son. True worship, however, is voluntary. It comes from the heart. Through worship we pay homage to the Father, creator of all. "True worshipers shall worship the Father in Spirit and in truth":—John 4:23.

Satan, ever alert, seeks to divert worship to himself, or failing, to make it ineffective. His brazen audacity was shown when he even tempted Jesus to worship him. The Saviour's reply emphasizes the fundamental truth: "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God and Him only shalt thou serve":—Matt. 4:10.

Latter-day Saints "claim the privilege of worshipping Almighty God according to the dictates of our own conscience." Yet, "man's capacity for worship is a measure of his comprehension of God." Therefore, to be acceptable, worship must be true. In our day, the Lord has said: "I give unto you these sayings that you may understand and know how to worship, and know what you worship, that you may come unto the Father; therefore, I say unto you, you shall receive grace from grace."—D. & C. 93:19.

Profound worship may take place among the hills, trees, or by the seashore. Certain essentials, however, are connected with worship in God's house. He has commanded that we meet together often, partake of the sacrament, and learn more fully of him. Reverent quietude begets true devotion and brings worshipful meditation. Someone has said: "Solitude is the home of the strong; silence, their prayer."

On the other hand, the thoughtless and frivolous oftentimes detract from the true spirit of worship in our meeting. Doubtless, they are often unaware that their light chatter and loud laughter is decidedly out of place in a house of worship. These reflect on the sacred character of divinely appointed assemblies. Adults, by proper example before the young should teach the true meaning of worship.

Having attended a sacred meeting—one opened and closed with prayer, we should have:

- 1—Felt the true spirit of worship;
- 2—Renewed our covenants with the Lord;
- 3—Increased our knowledge of the Gospel;
- 4—Exchanged quiet greetings and words of encouragement with fellow believers.

Such a service will be acceptable to God; uplifting to the Saints, and will show to visitors that we, indeed, have the Restored Gospel of Jesus Christ.

True worship is an eternal principle. True Saints will always reverently worship the Lord, and ever seek to perfect their methods of service and praise.

STAKE M. I. A. FIELD DAY

The annual Stake Field Day at Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, Decoration Day, May 30, proved another successful outing. Hundreds of Saints from all corners of the Stake were in attendance, and romped, played and visited on the greens. It was a gala day—a day of enjoyment and fun for all. Chairman Ray Lindsay and his workers are to be congratulated upon the successful affair.

In the M Men track meet, Oakland carried the field with a total of 55 points. Sunset was second with 20, then came San Francisco 17, Dimond 13 and Mission 1. Two new Stake records were made that will challenge the boys of the future. The pole vault record will probably stand for some time, and was made a tie by Cochran and Heath of Dimond. Both boys cleared the bar at 11 ft. 6 in. Ted Baer's shot put record of last year took a tumble when Everett Pendleton of Sunset tossed the iron ball 44 ft. 10 and a half in.

Chairman Walter Hall paid tribute to Coach James Sharp for the fine showing of the Oakland warders. His keen interest and hard work brought Oakland another championship track team.

Following are the Stake records. All were made last year, except the shot put and pole vault.

GENEOLOGICAL

Eastbay Union meetings, Oakland Chapel, Sunday, July 12, 2 p. m.

Westbay meeting, San Francisco Chapel, Thursday, July 30, 7:45 p. m.

SEVENTIES

During the past month special meetings have been held in the San Francisco, Sunset, and Berkeley wards. In Berkeley, A. Seldon Millward was appointed as group leader, John S. Andrews was similarly sustained in the Sunset ward and Samuel Franzén in the San Francisco ward.

Presidents R. A. Lakness and Edgar Morgenegg were the speakers at the San Francisco ward Sacrament meeting, May 24.

A complete card record is being prepared of all members of the quorum and careful record is to be kept of all activities.

Plans are being perfected whereby local seventies will labor as companions of the regular missionaries.

SCOUTS

The troop committee of the Berkeley ward tendered an appreciation party to Scoutmaster Howard McDonald and his assistants, Hugo Erickson and Eldon Ellis, Saturday June 13. Honor gifts were given them, climaxing an evening of fun, games and frolic, and concluding a most successful year in scouting.

The Balboa Scout troop 30, is "finding its place in the sun." At the recent Stake Field Day, they took an active part. Under the leadership of Stake Scout executive, Arthur Sadler, and assistant scoutmaster Clyde Pearson, the troop is making rapid progress. The membership rolls have grown from 6 to 22 during the last six months. Several of the Troop are attending the S. F. Council camp on the Russian River. Scoutmaster Sadler has been invited to attend Camp Royaneh as one of the Leaders during July. Balboa is proud of its Troop and its leaders.

DR. VINCENT HERE

Dr. Glenn G. Vincent has opened offices as physician and surgeon, 223 Church St., San Francisco. He is a graduate of the University of Utah and the University of Louisville Medical School. During the past year he has been with the U. S. Public Health Service in San Francisco. Dr. Vincent labored as a missionary here eight years ago.

THESE LAST DAYS!

It has been said, and wisely, that we don't need to be taught anything new, half so much as we need to be reminded of the things that we already know.

Accepting this saying as a truism, it behooves Latter-day Saints to pause and take a retrospective view of their standing, temporal and spiritual, in the limelight of revelation, and ascertain if we are making the best of our knowledge, compatible with our ability, for the advancement of the Kingdom of God on earth.

Jesus Christ said, "Ye are the salt of the earth; but if the salt has lost its savour, wherewith shall it be salted. It is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and be trodden underfoot of men."—Matt. 5:13.

How are we going to retain the savour in the midst of so much evil? By constant contact with our Father in Heaven, through the medium of prayer and righteous living, that we may always have His Spirit to be with us, and with charity in our hearts for all mankind, and for the household of faith. Without this, we are but as "sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal." By the same token, we are able to maintain our poise in a world of utter confusion and apparent hopelessness.

Men are wondering, fearing, doubting their senses at the appalling catastrophes that are coming on the earth, with crime in all its heinous phases, rampant in all quarters.

Still, for us who have long looked for His coming, these things are cause for rejoicing as they herald the dawn of that creation in which He shall reign, whose right it is to reign, even Jesus Christ, our Redeemer. Then, "We'll love one another and never dissemble.

But cease to do evil and ever be one, And, while the ungodly are fearing and trembling, We'll watch for the day when the Saviour will come."—James Calder

"We stand for a loyal adherence to Latter-day Saint ideals."

AUXILIARY ACTIVITIES

RELIEF SOCIETY

The Missionary Banquet of the San Francisco District was the outstanding social affair of the Stake, of late June. For many years it has been the custom for the Relief Society to banquet the missionaries and their guests on the opening day of their semi-annual conference. All Relief Society associations of the Stake assist in defraying the expense, while the association of the ward in which the conference is held prepare and serve the banquet. This time the Oakland Ward Relief Society was hostess. Tables were lovely in orchid and yellow; a delicious four course dinner was served.

President Mary S. Jordan, welcomed the guests and introduced the toastmaster, Elder Myron B. Walker, who cleverly presented the speakers. Those responding to toasts were: Pres. Thomas Birch, Elders, N. F. Wasden, W. D. Turner and Pres. W. Aird MacDonald. Mrs. J. T. Carruth made the response to the toast to the Relief Society. Miss Lois Linford entertained with a reading and Elder O. M. Roper with a trombone solo. The Elders quartette rendered a selection.

The lesson work of the Relief Societies for the year 1930-31 was completed during the last week in June. Meetings will be held only once a month during July, August and September.

The following wards report 100 per cent in teaching during the past month: Richmond, Oakland, Sunset, and Dimond. This means that every L. D. S. family in these wards have been visited by Relief Society teachers.
